

A right-angled triangle is shown, with its hypotenuse sloping upwards from left to right. The area beneath this hypotenuse is filled with a solid gray color. The vertical side of the triangle is also shaded gray. The horizontal base of the triangle is white.

3

x

5