

A right-angled triangle is shown, with its hypotenuse sloping upwards from left to right. The area beneath the hypotenuse is filled with a medium gray color. The vertical leg of the triangle is on the right side, and the horizontal leg extends from the bottom-left corner towards the center.

3

x

8